

5 All That Glimmers... Dining in the Heisey Glass Exhibit

Friday, September 5, 6:30 PM

Break all the Museum rules regarding eating and drinking in the galleries at this very unique opportunity to dine in the Emmet Gallery on Heisey Glassware. (For details about this extraordinary evening see front page.)

6 Heisey Glass ID Day

Saturday, September 6, 1 - 3:30 PM

Have a piece of glassware and want to know more about it? Mary Parrot and Jean Parrot, Heisey Club of America members, and other Heisey experts will be on hand to help identify glass pieces. A $5 donation to the Museum per piece is requested. Maximum of three pieces per person.

8 Friends

Monday, September 8, noon

Join the Museum Friends for luncheon and a program given by Chris Gordy, Executive Director of The Ella, and his wife, Susan on "What They Wore: A Quick Look at Early 19th Century Fashion." Reservations for the luncheon should be phoned in to the Museum (517-787-2320) by noon on Friday, September 5.

Dibble One-Room Schoolhouse... Class of 1955

8 Fall Classes Begin

Monday, September 8

It's not too late to sign up for a class or workshop-- see a full listing on the Museum website at www.ellasharp.org

16 Traverse City Trip

Tuesday, September 16 - Thursday, September 18

Join the Domestic Travel Committee on a visit to T-City. The trip includes two Museum visits, a day in Peninsula Wine Country, good food, and great company. Contact the Museum for more information.

18 Outdoor Sculpture Walk and Lecture

Thursday, September 18, 7 PM

Noted Michigan sculptor Ken Thompson will lead a walking tour through The Ella's Art of the Walk Outdoor Sculpture Exhibit. Ken will give insight into the concepts and methods employed when making large, outdoor pieces. Admission is free. Sponsored by County National Bank.

27 EXHIBIT OPENING Art a' Loan

Saturday, September 27

Each year the Museum teams up with the Art & Cultural Alliance of Jackson County and the Jackson Civic Art Association to promote young people's art. This year 60 students are represented from across the county. A reception on October 19 (2-4 p.m.) will feature the young artists.

4 EXHIBIT OPENING It's a Tonka! American Toy Trucks

Saturday, October 4

Over 50 toy trucks will be displayed, ranging from the 1920's through the 1960's.

15 An Evening in the Log Cabin

Wednesday, October 15, 6:30 PM

Join hosts Museum Executive Director Chris and Susan Gordy for a culinary trip to 1830s Jackson. Dine in Eli Stilson's log house on the Museum grounds. See front page for details.

5 Fall Harvest Festival

Sunday, October 5, noon- 4 PM

The Museum's largest community event is a great time to introduce someone to The Ella. Admission is free with nominal fees for certain activities and refreshments. The day is filled with autumny fun: an antique and vintage tractor parade, old car display, children's art activities, 19th century foodways demos, a clay competition, and more!

Wonder if the other scarecrows will be at the Fall Harvest Festival?

19 Art a' Loan Reception

Sunday, October 19, 2 - 4 PM

The artwork of area K-12 students will fly off the walls today to offices around the county.

24... HAUNTED WOODS

Friday, October 24 and Saturday,
October 25, 6:30 - 8:30 PM, $2

Do you dare enter The Ella's Haunted Woods? See front page for details.

25 EXHIBIT OPENING & RECEPTION Jackson Collects

Saturday, October 25, Reception 2-4 PM

An exhibition featuring the private collections of area residents. Meet some of the collectors at the opening reception today.

7... Youth Art Festival

October 7-10 and 13-17

Area K-12 art students will visit The Ella, tour the galleries, and create individual and community art projects.

13 Friends

Monday, October 13, noon

Luncheon and a program "The History of Spring Arbor Township" is presented by Beverly "Becky" Cunningham of the Spring Arbor Historical Committee. Reservations must be phoned in to the Museum by noon on Friday, October 10.

31 Scary, Scary Night

All Hallow's Eve, 6 - 8 PM

A family-friendly night of trick-or-treating, old fashioned games, and spooktacular surprises. Who or what will you come as?