

An Evening in the Log House

In the twilight of an autumn evening step back in time to the 1830s for a taste of the past. On Wednesday, October 15, at 6:30 p.m., join Ella Sharp Museum of Art and History Director and host Chris Gordy and his wife, Susan, for the ambience and culinary fare of an earlier Jackson. This is the first time visitors have been allowed to dine in what was once early Jackson resident Eli Stilson's home. Period fiddle music will create a warm and lively atmosphere. The Gordys will cook up a cabin feast using hot coals, bake ovens, and kettles. This unique opportunity to dine in the log house with period food might not come along again. An Evening in the Log House is $150 per person with proceeds going directly to the Museum and Museum programming.

Space is limited. Please make your reservation today at (517) 787-2320.
